PRELIMINARY NOTES

Translation goals always effect the translation outcome. The goal of the English translation of the German Social Survey (ALLBUS) 2010 is to let interested researchers know what was asked in the survey. Our goal is not to produce a questionnaire that can be fielded in an English speaking community exactly as presented. Some of the translations, for example, are not especially idiomatic; reasons are given below. Our translations are not heavily annotated. Occasionally we provide additional information in square brackets [...]. If anyone wants to field ALLBUS items in English, we seriously recommend to take the points we made below into consideration and adjust the translations appropriately to his or her own survey context. If there are any questions where clarification is needed, we will be happy to help where possible.

Together with the ALLBUS 2010 study the modules for 2009 (Social Inequality) and 2010 (Environment) of the International Social Survey Programme (ISSP) were fielded in a split. The English ISSP source questionnaires can be found on the ISSP website www.issp.org ("Archive and data").

We would like to take the opportunity to thank our translator for his patience and his valuable professional contribution. David Allison, a native English speaking translator, did the translation into English, decisions on the final translation are taken by the ALLBUS-team.

Particular points of relevance

Translation of the German indefinite pronoun ,man' which in some respect is like the English indefinite pronoun ,one':

The German ,man' is not formal and used in more and different contexts from ,one' in English. English equivalents, depending on context, can be ,one', ,you', ,we' or ,people'.

Gender specific reference:

German and English differ quite a lot in the way the sex of people is referred to. Various differences have meant that we sometimes translated with ‚he/she‘ when the German has indicated the sex differently.

Answer scales:

Translation of answer scales is a special case (Harkness 1998)¹. For some scales, we have attempted to provide translations that might actually work in an English field questionnaire. For other scales, where the German scale itself was perhaps unusual, we simply tried to translate the essence.

Answer categories not read out (Don't know (DK), etc.):

The ALLBUS 2010 was mainly conducted as a computer-assisted-personal-interview (CAPI) and nonresponse categories such as ‚answer refusal‘, ‚don't know‘ or ‚no answer‘ were not read out to respondents.

Routing

Not documented here. For this information see data handbooks/labels of respective values in data sets.

Interviewer specifications:

Interviewer specifications are in italics, e.g. INT.: Please present card 31.

Let's begin with some questions about family and partnership.

Do you think one needs a family to be really happy, or do you think one can be just as happy living on one's own?

Needs a family

Just as happy on one's own

Happier on one's own

INT.: Please mix orange card pack.

These cards contain various statements about work and people's jobs.

How important do you personally consider these factors to be for a person's work and job?

INT.: Hold up a card to explain how the scale works.

There is a scale with seven fields here on the right of each of these cards. The lowest field with the number 1 means that you personally think this factor is unimportant. The field at the top with the number 7 means that you think this particular factor is very important. You can use the numbers in between to differentiate your answers.

INT.: Hand over the cards one at a time!

- A Job security
- B A high income
- C Good opportunities for promotion
- D A job which is recognised and respected by other people
- E A job which leaves ample leisure time
- F Interesting work
- G A job in which one can work independently
- H Tasks which require a strong sense of responsibility
- J A job which involves a lot of contact with other people
- K A job in which one can help others
- L A job which is useful to society

F002b

I am now going to read various statements out to you about a person's work and job. How important do you personally consider these factors to be for a person's work and job?

INT.: Please display card 2!

On this list you can see a scale with seven fields. The lowest field with the number 1 means that you personally think this factor is unimportant. The field at the top with the number 7 means that you think this particular factor is very important. You can use the numbers in between to differentiate your opinion.

INT.: Please read out the statements.

F007

INT.: Present card 7.

Here is a card with various views on what social differences in Germany are really like and how things should be.

Please go through these one by one and tell me whether you:

completely agree

tend to agree

tend to disagree or completely disagree.

Don't know

- A What one gets in life depends not so much on one's own efforts but on the economic situation, the situation on the employment market, wage agreements, and the social benefits provided by the state.
 - B Income should not be based solely on individual achievement. Instead, everybody should have what they and their family need for a decent life.
 - C Only when differences in income and in social standing are large enough is there an incentive for individual achievement.
 - D Differences in status between people are acceptable because they basically reflect what people have made of the opportunities they have had.
 - E On the whole, I consider the social differences in our country just.
 - F The state must ensure that people can live a decent income even in illness, hardship, unemployment and old age.

F008

If the federal government had to decide between reducing taxes or spending more on social services, which do you think it should do:

Reduce taxes or spend more on social services?

Reduce taxes

Spend more on social services

Don't know

F009

Some people say that we have more than enough social benefits in Germany today and that they should be cut back in the future.

Other people think that we should keep the current system of social provision and if necessary extend it. Have you formed an opinion on this issue?

Yes

No

F010

What is your opinion?

Should social benefits be cut in the future, should things stay as they are, or should social benefits be extended?

Should be cut

Should stay as they are

Should be extended

F011

It is often said that there are conflicts of interest between different groups in Germany, such as between political groups, between men and women, etc.

These conflicts are not all equally strong.

I am now going to mention a few such groups.

Using this list, please tell me whether in your view these conflicts are ...

very strong,

fairly strong,

quite weak,

not conflicts at all.

INT.: Display card 11!

Between politically left-wing and politically right-wing people

Between employers and employees

Between people with a lower secondary school education and university graduates

Between people with and people without children

Between young people and old people

Between rich people and poor people

Between workers and pensioners

Between politicians and ordinary citizens

Between capitalists and the working class

Between foreigners and Germans

Between men and women

Between people from western Germany and people from eastern Germany

Between German citizens and ethnic Germans from eastern Europe

Between the employed and unemployed

Between Christians and Muslims

F012

I'm going to read you some statements now. Please tell me after each one whether you have the same or a different opinion.

INT.: Please read the statements aloud!

No matter what some people say, life for ordinary people is getting worse rather than better.
With the future looking as it does, it's almost irresponsible to bring children into the world.
Most politicians are not really interested at all in the problems of ordinary people.
Most people don't really care in the slightest what happens to others.

Have the same opinion

Have a different opinion

F014

I am now going to read out a few statements to you. To what extent do you think these statements apply?

INT.: Display card 14

The value 1 means that you think the statement doesn't apply at all and the value 7 means that it applies completely. You can use the numbers in between to differentiate your answer.

To help somebody is the best policy to be certain that s/he will help you in the future.

If I suffer a serious wrong, I will take my revenge as soon as possible, no matter what the costs.

I avoid being impolite because I do not want others being impolite with me.

If somebody puts me in a difficult position, I will do the same to him/her.

I go out of my way to help somebody who has helped me before.

I am ready to undergo personal costs to help somebody who helped me before.

1 Don't apply at all

F016

INT.: Please display card 16

In politics too one can't have everything at once.
On this card are four goals which can be pursued in politics.

INT.: Only one choice possible for each one.

F016A If you had to choose between these different goals, which one would seem to you personally to be the most important?

F016B And which goal would be the second most important to you?

F016C And which goal would be third?

(F016D And which goal would be fourth?)

- A To maintain law and order in this country
- B To give citizens more influence on government decisions
- C To fight rising prices
- D To protect the right of freedom of speech

F017

Many people use the terms "left" and "right" when they want to describe different political views.

INT.: Please display card 17.

Here we have a scale which runs from left to right. Thinking of your own political views, where would you place these on this scale?

Please select one of the boxes and name the letter indicated beneath it.

F048A

*INT.: Since this is an important question, please try to elicit an answer.
If there are difficulties referring to the classification, here are some hints for you:*

Trainees are considered employees in a regular occupation.

Family members assisting in a family business who are full-time or part-time ("half-time") employees in the business of a household or a family member, without having a formal contract, are also considered employees in a regular occupation (either full-time or part-time).

"Employed less than part-time" are persons who are gainfully employed while, at the same time, one of the following applies:

*Attend a full-time school (pupils and students),
Are registered as unemployed or
Draw a retirement benefit / pension as a result of previous employment.*

Persons on maternity / parental leave or on another type of leave of absence are not considered employees in a regular occupation.
